AMUSEMENTS.

Actors' Fund Benefit.

Seven Washington theaters and two of Baltimore combined in the benefit performance at the National Theater yesterday afternoon for the Actors' Fund of America, and $1,260 was realized therefrom, all of it clear.

Sir Charles Wyndham, whose company is now at the National Theater, president of the Actors' Fund in England, made a brief address, in which he explained the chief object of the performance and told of the charity it was designed to promote. A feature of the program, in which many excellent players took part, was the Sutro sketch in one act, "The Correct Thing," in which Miss Margaret Anglin, her leading man, Eugene Ormonde, and Miss Gertrude Swigert appeared. Miss Trixie Friganza came over from Baltimore, as did Miss Anglin, to give a monologue and sing some songs. Mme. appeared in a scene from the second act of "Baccarat." "Talk of New York."

Victor Moore will appear as Kid Burns in George M. Cohan's musical play, "The Talk of New York," at the Join our "Don't Worry Columbia Theater next week. "The Talk" is a sequel to Cohan's earlier offering, Merely send up the copy, state your needs and "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway," in which Victor Moore created the character of Kid Burns. The first act shows the exterior of the clubhouse at Sheepshead Bay race track; the second act takes place in the lobby of the Hotel Astor, New York city; the third act discloses the Booth lawn at Claremont, Riverside drive, New York, and the fourth finds Burns at his home in New Rochelle. "Smart slangological chatter" is promised.

"Awakening of Helena Richie."

Next Monday evening Margaret Anglin will begin a week's engagement at the National Theater. Miss Anglin comes here with her own production of "The Awakening of Helena Richie." This fouract drama, adapted from Margaret Deland's novel by Charlotte Thompson, has been seen with approval in New York. Boston, Chicago and St. Louis. As Heiena, the heroine, Miss Anglin enjoys opportunities for comedy work. The lead- H, 27th Infantry, those soldiers will be ing man of Miss Anglin's company is Eugene Ormonde, who has often filled long stock engagements, and is favorably known in Washington.

"A Son of the People."

Next week at the Belasco Theater John Mason and his company will appear in "A Son of the People," a drama of the French revolution which had its premier at the ..ew Theater of New York, Monday, February 28, and which is being sent by the Messrs. Shubert on a brief tour during the intervals of grand opera at the . ew Theater. The supporting company includes such distinguished players as George Fawcett, Catherine Maelreu and Walter Hill.

"The Lion Tamer."

Chase's next week will present Valerie Bergere and her company of ten players in are realistic comedy production, "The Lion Tamer," with hippodrome scenes and a sensational battle in the lion's den. The song writers, Harry Williams and Egbert Van Alstyne, will offer com positions of their own. Rex's Comedy Circus will be an amusing novelty. Other attractions will be Claude M. Roode, stack wire sensationalist; Hoey and Lee, parodists; Spalding and Riego, automatic flying trapeze comedians; Geiger and Walters, in "In the Streets of Italy," and "Our German Cousin" and "The Bee Industry," by the vitagraph.

"The Joy Rider."

New music, pretty girls, bright costumes and George Sidney are mentioned as feature attractions of "The Joy Rider," which comes to the Academy next ...onday evening. Sidney is well known to theatergoers through his appearance as a dialect comedian the past seven seasons, at the head of his own company. Among the principals of the company may be mentioned William Newkirk, Madge Lawrence, Lillian Dayen, Winnie Richards, Dick Hume, Frank Milton and the De Long sisters. The chorus is said to be one of the best singing organizations of the season.

Casino Attractions.

At the Casino next week the Transfield Company will present a circus in tabloid form, with ponies, dogs and donkeys and comedy. E. A. Midway and Arcade.

Crowds laugh their way daily through the numerous novelties of the Midway and wander at leisure through the various departments of the Arcade, at 14th street and Park road. The new Arcade ballroom, with its equally new Arcade Orchestra, holds merry throngs of dancers, and downstairs the billiard coom, moving picture theater and the bowling alleys do not lack generous patronage. In the Midway there are several surprises. Chief among these is the roulette wheel, which means practically all of the hundreds in the Midway last night. The motor by which the wheel is spun was recently overhauled, and in the operation the course of the wheel was exactly reversed. Formerly the roulette whirled to the left, but now the revolu-tions are to the right. The change proved the undoing of many who thought they had learned the wheel thoroughly.

Live Game Photographs.

A lecture tomorrow afternoon at the New National Theater, entitled "Photographing Live Game on Roosevelt's Trail," will be given by A. Radclyffe Dugmore, for the benefit of the Arts and Crafts School. The pictures of live animals have attracted much scientific and artistic attention

East South Africa.

Arrangements have been made with Capt. Fritz Duquesne, soldier, hunter and writer of South Africa, for the repetition of his lecture on "East Africa-the Wonderland of Roosevelt's Hunt," at the Columbia Theater next Sunday night at 8:15 o'clock. Capt. Duquesne, still a young man, has had an eventful career. He was born in South Africa, of Boer Breeskin, violinist, and L. E. Manoly, a professional hunter of big game.

Saengerbund Concert.

The second public concert this season of the Washington Saengerbund will take Ormond, the well known mezzo soprano of Boston; Arturo Tibaldi, the eminent violin virtuoso of London; Andre Benoist of New York, accompanist, and an orchestra of thirty-five musicians. This concert promises to be one of the best in the history of the society. It will be under the direction of Henry Xander.
